ARCHAEOLOGICAL SERVICES INC. (1981-present)

I joined Archaeological Services Inc., a cultural resource management firm, in 1981 and have since directed hundreds of archaeological surveys, excavations, and comprehensive heritage resource assessments on lands throughout the Province of Ontario with sites of all major cultural and temporal periods. As Senior Archaeologist with the firm, I co-manage a full-time staff of sixteen individuals, in our Toronto office, and direct on average between 100 and 130 projects at any one time. I am also responsible for directing ASI's projects in northern Ontario, the Greater Toronto Area and cultural heritage components of Environmental Assessments.
